

ITEM 18

Adopting of a resolution on amendments and supplements to the Company's By-Laws

The amendments and supplements to the By-Laws of Electrorazpredelitelni mreji Zapad AD (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), proposed by the Management Board of the Company, are caused by the following circumstances:

Electrorazpredelitelni mreji Zapad AD (formerly CEZ Distribution Bulgaria AD) has a license № L-135-07 / 13.08.2004 for distribution of electricity. The license is for a period of 35 years.

The activity of the Company is carried out in accordance with the normative base for the energy sector in Bulgaria, regulated by the Energy Act (EA), the Renewable Energy Act (REA), the bylaws on their implementation, the Public Offering of Securities Act (LPOS), Public Procurement Act (PPA), Competition Protection Act (LPC), Spatial Planning Act (SPA), as well as in accordance with the current legislation in the Republic of Bulgaria.

Under item 17 of the invitation for the Regular General Meeting of the Company, scheduled for June 27, 2022, a proposal has been done to the General Meeting of the Company to change the Company's scope of activities. The proposed changes in the registered scope of activities of the Company are editorial and aim at clearing the used terminology and refining the record in accordance with the license held by the Company and the current regulations.

According to Art. 221, item 1 of the Commercial Law and Art. 48, para. 1, item 1 of the By-Laws of the Company, the General Meeting of the Company is competent to make amendments and supplements to the By-Laws.

The specific proposals for amendments and supplements to the By-Laws of the Company are set out in the draft attached to this material.

Draft resolution:

"The General Meeting, on the grounds of Art. 221, item 1 of the Commercial Act and Art. 48, para. 1, item 1 of the By-Laws of the Company amends and supplements the Company's By-Laws, as follows:

Minutes of Proceedings of the General Meeting

Article 52

Minutes of proceedings shall be taken for each session of the General Meeting in Bulgarian and shall be filed in a specially designated book. The minutes of proceedings shall record:

- 1 the place and time of holding the session;
- 2 the names of the chairperson, the secretary and the recorders of the votes;
- 3 (amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) the number of the persons who have exercised their right to vote at the General Meeting and the number of shares held;
- 4 the names of members of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board or other persons who are not Shareholders attending the meeting;
- 5 the substantive proposals made;
- 6 the voting and the results thereof;
- 7 the objections made.

Article 53

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) The minutes shall be signed by the chairperson, the secretary, and the recorders of the votes at the session. A list of the persons with voting rights and the representatives of the persons with voting rights present at the General Meeting, as well as the documents related to convening of the General Meeting shall be appended to the minutes. The minutes and the appendices thereto shall be kept for 5 (five) years.

Supervisory Board

Article 54

The Supervisory Board shall supervise the exercise of powers of the Management Board and the business activities of the Company.

Article 55

(amended by decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 6 December 2007; 26 April 2012 20 June 2013 and 18 April 2022) The Supervisory Board shall consist of 3 (three) to 6 (six) members. The members of the Supervisory Board of the Company shall be elected by the General Meeting for a term of 5 (five) years save for the members of the first board who shall be elected for a term of 3 years and may be re-elected without limitation. If the mandate of any member of the Supervisory Board expires, such member shall continue being able to exercise his rights (including, without limitation, the right of voting at meetings of the Supervisory Board and the right of taking in-absentio resolutions of the Supervisory Board) and performing his obligations as a member of the Supervisory Board until dismissed by the General Meeting of the Company or de-registered from the Commercial Registry as such following the procedure for de-registration provided for in the applicable law.

Article 56

The Supervisory Board shall elect a chairperson and a vice-chairperson among its members. The performance of duties by the Chairperson and vice-chairperson shall start on the day of his/her election and shall terminate on his/her removal by the Supervisory Board.

Invitation

Article 57

The sessions of the Supervisory Board shall be called by a written invitation sent to all members at least 14 (fourteen) days before the date of the session. The invitation for the session shall contain the following information:

- 1 the name and the registered office of the Company;
- 2 the place, date and time of the session of the Supervisory Board;
- 3 the type of the session to be held - regular or extraordinary;
- 4 notice as to the formalities that need to be complied with, for the members to be able to attend and vote at the session; and
- 5 the proposed issues to be put on the agenda for discussion and the proposals for decisions thereon.

Meetings of the Supervisory Board

Article 58

The Supervisory Board shall convene regular meetings, at least once every three months, to discuss the status and development of the Company. Extraordinary meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be convened by the chairperson upon his/her own initiative or at the request of a member of the Supervisory Board. If the request to convene an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Board is not honoured within 30 (thirty) days following its receipt by the chairperson of the Supervisory Board, the requesting member may convene the meeting himself/herself.

Article 59

The meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be chaired by the Chairperson, in his/her absence by the Vice-Chairperson, and shall be legitimate, if all the members have been duly invited and a majority of the members attend in person, or are represented by another member of the Supervisory Board who has been so authorised in writing. Each member of the Supervisory Board may represent only one non-attending member of the Supervisory Board.

Article 60

The session of the Supervisory Board shall be able to make decisions, provided it has been called in compliance with the law and the By-laws. Decisions on matters, which were not included in the announced agenda, may still be taken if all members attend or are represented at the meeting and there are no objections to such decisions being made.

Article 61

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) The Supervisory Board may make decisions in absentio (via correspondence), provided all members of the Supervisory Board agree with the decision by signing a document setting out such decision. Counterparts of such document shall be deemed one and the same document when put together so long as all signatures of all members of the Supervisory Board have been obtained. Facsimile or emailed signatures shall be given the same effect as original documents.

Article 62

A meeting of the Supervisory Board may take place and valid resolutions of the Supervisory Board may also be passed by way of a telephone conference conversation or any other similar means of communication between the members, provided that the members attending the meeting are able to hear and talk to each other. Participation in a meeting of the Supervisory Board in such a manner shall be regarded as equivalent to attendance in person, subject to the same requirements in respect of quorum. The resolutions passed at any such meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be confirmed in writing by the members attending the respective meeting as soon as reasonably possible after its conclusion pursuant to Article 61.

Powers of the Supervisory Board

Article 63

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 26 April 2012) The Supervisory Board shall have the power to:

- 1 adopt its own Rules of Procedure;
- 2 appoint and dismiss the members of the Management Board;
- 3 approve the decisions of the Management Board to delegate authority to one or more of its members or to one or several procurists to represent and bind the Company;
- 4 require that the Management Board provides information or a report on any matter concerning the Company;
- 5 approve the procedural rules of the Management Board;
- 6 approve the election and authorisation of the Executive Director(s) (if any) by the Management Board;

- 7 approve the essential changes in organizational structure and personnel organization structure of the Company proposed by the Management Board (for avoidance of any doubt the change leading to dismissal of the personnel with more than 5% of the total number of the personnel and any increase is considered to be an essential change);
- 8 determine the main strategies for development of the Company's scope of activities, subject to approval of the General Meeting where any proposed strategy would require an amendment to the By-laws of the Company;
- 9 (amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) approve the operating plans, the budget and the changes in accounting policies of the Company;
- 10 review and approve the annual financial statements, the annual report on the activities of the Company and the proposal for distribution of profit, and to propose the foregoing for approval by the General Meeting;
- 11 decide on other matters which by virtue of the law are in its competence.

Decisions and Majorities

Article 64

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 15 August 2011; supplemented by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 20 June 2013; amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 7 April 2016) The Supervisory Board shall adopt its decisions by a simple majority of its members attending the respective session in person or duly represented by proxies, unless the law requires a higher majority.

Article 65

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 15 August 2011 and by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 26 April 2012) The following transactions, specified in Art. 236 para 2 from the Law on Commerce, may be undertaken only after prior approval by the Supervisory Board

- (a) transfer or making available for use by a third party of the whole business enterprise of the Company;
- (b) disposal of assets, whose total value in the current year exceeds ½ of the total value of the assets of the Company in the latest audited annual Balance Sheet; and
- (c) assumption of liabilities or provision of security to a stand-alone third party or to a group of third parties affiliated to each other, whose total value in the current year exceeds ½ of the total value of the assets of the Company in the latest audited annual Balance Sheet.

Minutes of Proceedings from the Meetings of the Supervisory Board

Article 66

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) Minutes of proceedings shall be kept for each meeting of the Supervisory Board on paper or in electronic form and shall be signed by a secretary (which shall be determined by the Supervisory Board) of such meeting and by all the attending members. Appended to the minutes of proceedings shall be the documents presented at the meeting and the written powers of attorney given by the non-attending members. The minutes of meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be filed in books which are maintained solely for that purpose and such books shall be kept for at least 5 (five) years. When the minutes are signed as an electronic document, the originals are stored in an electronic register.

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) The decision of the Supervisory Board to appoint and dismiss the members of the Management Board shall be entered into the commercial registry and shall take effect following such entry. Any other decision shall take effect immediately, unless the effect of such decision is expressed to be deferred.

Management Board

Article 67

The Company shall be managed on an on-going basis by the Management Board.

Article 68

(amended by decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 6 December 2007; 26 April 2012; 20 June 2013 and 18 April 2022) The Management Board shall consist of 3 (three) to 5 (five) members. The members of the Management Board shall be appointed by the Supervisory Board for a term of 5 (five) years save for the members of the first Management Board who shall be appointed for a term of 3 (three) years and may be re-elected without limitation. If the mandate of any member of the Management Board expires, such member shall continue being able to exercise his rights (including, without limitation, the right of voting at meetings of the Management Board and the right of taking in-absentio resolutions of the Management Board) and performing his obligations as a member of the Management Board until dismissed from office by the Supervisory Board of the Company or de-registered from the Commercial Registry as such following the procedure for de-registration provided for in the applicable law.

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 20 June 2013) The Management Board shall elect from among its members one or more Executive Directors to manage the day-to-day operation of the Company and to represent the Company before third parties. The Executive Director(s) shall be elected by simple majority of the Management Board. The authorisation may be withdrawn at any moment by simple majority. The name of the person(s) authorised to represent the Company shall be entered in the Commercial Register.

Article 69

The Management Board shall elect a chairperson and a vice-chairperson among its members.

Article 70

The Management Board shall appoint a secretary who need not be a member of the Management Board.

Powers of the Management Board

Article 71

The Management Board shall make decisions within its competence in compliance with the decisions of the General Meeting, these By-laws and the law in effect. The Management Board shall report on its activity to the Supervisory Board at least once every three months and to the General Meeting.

Article 72

The Management Board may not decide on the matters that require the prior consent of the Supervisory Board or the General Meeting, as the case may be, unless such consent has been obtained.

Article 73

- (1) (amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 26 April 2012) The Management Board may, by simple majority of the attending members of the Management Board, pass resolutions on:
- 1 formulation of the main strategies for development of the Company's scope of activities for approval by the Supervisory Board;
 - 2 opening and closing of branch office, subject to approval by the Supervisory Board;
 - 3 election of a chairperson and a vice-chairperson;
 - 4 delegation of authority to two of its members to represent and bind the Company subject to approval by the Supervisory Board;
 - 5 determination of the organisational structure and personnel organisation structure of the Company subject to approval by the Supervisory Board in the case of Art. 63, item 7;
 - 6 enacting rules for the organisation and activity of the particular structural units of the Company subject to approval by the Supervisory Board;
 - 7 appointment the senior management of the Company such as the chief accountant of the Company;
 - 8 appointment of procurators or commercial representatives;

 - 10 transactions under Art. 236 (2) of the Law on Commerce subject to authorization by the Supervisory Board;
 - 11 (amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) adoption of rules of voting by proxy, the forms to be used in voting by proxy, and the ways to inform the company on electronically executed proxy authorisations, and
 - 12 any other matter with respect to which the General Meeting does not have exclusive decision making power or with respect to which the prior written consent of the General Meeting or the Supervisory Board as provided for in these By-laws is not required.
- (2) (new, adopted by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 20 June 2013; repealed by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 7 April 2016)

Meetings of the Management Board

Article 74

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) The Management Board shall convene regular meetings, at least once every month, to discuss the status and development of the Company. Meetings of the Management Board shall be convened by the chairperson upon his/her own initiative or at the request of a member of the Management Board, by the vice-chairperson, in the absence of the chairperson or by the secretary of the Management Board, if authorized in writing by the chairperson. If the request to convene a meeting of the Management Board is not honoured 10 (ten) days following its receipt by the chairperson of the Management Board, the requesting member may convene the meeting himself/herself.

Article 75

The meetings of the Management Board shall be chaired by the chairperson, in his/her absence by the vice-chairperson, and shall be legitimate, if all the members have been duly invited and if more than 1/2 (one-half) of the members attend in person, or are represented by another member of the Management Board who has been so authorised in writing. Each member of the Management Board may represent only one non-attending member of the Management Board.

Minutes of Proceedings from the Meetings of the Management Board

Article 76

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) Minutes of proceedings at each meeting shall be kept for each meeting of the Management Board on paper or in electronic form and shall be signed by the secretary of such meeting and by all the attending members. Appended to the minutes of proceedings shall be the documents presented at the meeting and the written powers of attorney given by the non-attending members. The minutes of meetings of the Management Board shall be filed in books which are maintained solely for that purpose and such books shall be kept for at least 5 (five) years. When the minutes are signed as an electronic document, the originals are stored in an electronic register.

Article 77

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) The Management Board may make decisions in absentio (via correspondence), provided all members of the Management Board agree with the decision by signing a document setting out such decision. Counterparts of such document shall be deemed one and the same document when put together so long as all signatures of all members of the Management Board have been obtained. Facsimile or emailed signatures shall be given the same effect as original documents.

Article 78

A meeting of the Management Board may take place and valid resolutions of the Management Board may also be passed by way of a telephone conference conversation or any other similar means of communication between the members, provided that the members attending the meeting are able to hear and talk to each other. Participation in a meeting of the Management Board in such a manner shall be regarded as equivalent to attendance in person, subject to the same requirements in respect of quorum. The resolutions passed at any such meetings of the Management Board shall be confirmed in writing by the members attending the respective meeting as soon as reasonably possible after its conclusion.

General Provisions for the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board

Article 79

The members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board shall be natural or legal persons having legal capacity to exercise their rights and perform their obligations. The Management Board and the Supervisory Board may not have as its member a person who:

- 1 has been a member of an executive or supervisory body of, or a partner of unlimited liability in, a company which has been dissolved due to bankruptcy, if, following dissolution, unsatisfied creditors remained;
- 2 is a spouse or a direct or collateral relative or in-law of another member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board respectively.

- 3 (new, adopted by a decision of the General Meeting of the Company of 18 April 2022) any person, who has been a managing director, a member of a managing or controlling body of a company, with regard to which non-performance of obligations to establish and maintain the stock levels, prescribed thereto under the Crude Oil and Petroleum Products Stocks Act, has been established by an effective penal order.

Article 80

The members of the Management Board shall have no right to perform commercial transactions on their own behalf or on behalf of third parties, to participate in commercial companies as partners with unlimited liability, as well as to be appointed as legal representatives or members of management bodies of other companies which are unaffiliated competitors of the Company, except with the consent of the Supervisory Board.

Article 81

Before being elected as members of the Management Board or Supervisory Board the persons nominated for members of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board are obliged to inform respectively the Supervisory Board or General Meeting in writing, in case they participate in commercial companies as partners with unlimited liability, hold more than 25% of the capital of another commercial company or participate in the management of other commercial companies as managing directors, legal representatives or board members. In case such circumstances occur after the election of the member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board, he/she is obliged to notify respectively the Supervisory Board or General Meeting immediately.

Rights and Obligations of the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board

Article 82

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 20 June 2013; amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 7 April 2016) The members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board shall have equal rights and obligations notwithstanding the inner allocation of their functions and the managing powers granted to the Executive Director(s).

Article 83

The members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board shall not disclose any information relating to the Company of which they become aware in their capacity as members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board if such disclosure may affect the business affairs and/or the development of the Company. Such obligation of non-disclosure shall continue to apply after a member has ceased to be a member of the Management Board or the Supervisory Board. The non-disclosure obligation shall not apply to any information which by the application of law is available to third parties, to any information that has already been disclosed by the Company to third parties without the imposition of a confidentiality obligation.

Remuneration of the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board

Article 84

(repealed by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 20 June 2013)

Liability of the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board

Article 85

The members of the Supervisory and Management Boards shall provide a surety for their activities in an amount to be determined by the General Meeting, which surety shall in no event be less than 3

(three) months gross remuneration. Following dismissal from office and release from liability of the respective member, the guarantee shall be returned along with any accrued interest thereon. The members of each of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board shall be jointly liable for damages caused to the Company. The General Meeting may release a member from liability in the event it is established that such damage has not been incurred through the faulty behaviour of such member.

Funds

Article 86

The Company shall form a Reserve Fund. The Reserve Fund shall be formed by:

- 1 at least 1/10 (one tenth) of its after-tax profit before the payment of Dividends until the amount in the fund becomes equal to 1/10 (one tenth) of the registered Capital;
- 2 amounts received above the nominal value of the Shares upon their issue;
- 3 other sources determined by decision of the General Meeting.

Article 87

Amounts in the Reserve Fund may only be used to cover losses from the activities of the Company, for the current and the previous years. In case the amounts in the Reserve Fund exceed 1/10 (one tenth) of the registered Capital of the Company, the surplus may be used for the increase of the registered Capital.

Article 88

In case the amounts in the Reserve Fund fall below 1/10 (one tenth) of the registered Capital, the Company shall restore the minimum amount required for the Reserve Fund within one year.

Article 89

Pursuant to a decision of the Management Board, the Company may form other funds. Such a decision shall specify the sources for raising such funds and the manner in which such funds will be spent.

Branch Offices

Article 90

The Company may establish Branch Offices in the country and abroad in the manner provided for by these By-laws. The branch offices shall not be legal entities. In the town where the Company's registered office is situated an enterprise unit may be established, which shall work in the same manner as the Branch Offices. Each Branch Office shall be managed by a branch office manager, who shall represent the Company and manage the activity of the branch office on behalf and for the account of the Company.

Article 91

The employment or management contract with a branch office manager shall be executed, amended and terminated by the Executive Director following a resolution of the Management Board.

Article 92

The Branch Offices shall conduct their activities in the best interests of the Company in compliance with their given instructions, the law, the By-laws and the resolutions of the management bodies of the Company.

Annual Closing

Article 93

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 7 April 2016) By the end of February each year, the Management Board shall prepare the annual financial statements as of December 31 of the previous calendar year. The financial statements shall be prepared pursuant to the Law on Accounting, and shall be accompanied by a report on the activities of the Company, describing the activities and the financial status of the Company and giving clarifications on the annual financial statements and be accompanied with a proposal for distribution of profits.

Article 94

The annual financial statements shall be examined by the Auditors who shall be certified public accountants, to be appointed by the General Meeting. The Auditors shall establish whether the annual financial statements have been duly prepared pursuant to the Law on Accounting and to the By-laws. The results of the audit shall be reported by the Auditors in a separate report, a copy of which, together with the annual financial statements, the report on the activities of the Company and the proposal for distribution of profit made shall be submitted by the Management Board to the Supervisory Board. The meeting of the Supervisory Board held for the approval of the documents mentioned in the foregoing sentence shall be attended by the appointed Auditors. After these documents have been approved by the Supervisory Board, the latter shall pass a decision for convening the General Meeting.

Article 95

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 26 April 2012) After the General Meeting has approved the documents referred to in the foregoing article, the annual financial statements shall be filed with the Commercial Registry.

Article 96

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 20 June 2013) Shareholders holding, individually or collectively, at least 5% (five percent) of the Company's capital shall be entitled to request the General Meeting to appoint a controller who would review and examine the whole accounting documentation of the Company.

Distribution of Profit

Article 97

The balance-sheet profit shall be distributed based on a decision of the General Meeting and in compliance with both these By-laws and the law. Any amounts to be contributed to the Reserve Fund shall be withheld from the profit after tax.

Distribution of Dividend

Article 98

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 26 April 2012) The amount of any Dividend shall be determined by the decision of the General Meeting pursuant to Art. 247a of the Law on Commerce. Dividends shall be paid within 3 (three) months following the date of the resolution of the General Meeting on the annual closing under the provisions of the LPOS.

Reorganisation and Dissolution

Article 99

(amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 26 April 2012) The Company may be transformed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Law on Commerce and the LPOS.

Article 100

The Company shall be dissolved:

- 1 (amended by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of 15 August 2011) upon resolution of the General Meeting passed by a 2/3 (two thirds) majority of the Shares represented at the General Meeting;
- 2 if it is declared bankrupt;
- 3 by court decision in the case of a claim by the prosecutor, if
 - (a) the Company pursues objectives prohibited by law;
 - (b) the net value of the Company's assets determined under Article 247a(2) of the Law on Commerce falls below the amount of the Capital and within one year the General Meeting fails to adopt decision to appropriately decrease the amount of registered capital, to reorganise or to terminate the Company; or
 - (c) for more than 6 (six) months, the number of members of each Board is less than three persons.
